

Peter Shankman Workshop in October

Tuesday, October 5, 2010, on your Outlook calendar for one of our most exciting one-day professional workshops ever!

Peter Shankman, the founder and CEO of The Geek Factory, a boutique marketing and PR strategy firm located in New York City will be our presenter for the day. Plus, the workshop will take place at Hyundai Motor Manufacturing Alabama.

Shankman is the author of Can We Do That?! Outrageous PR Stunts That Work and Why Your Company Needs Them (Wiley and Sons 2006) and a frequent keynote speaker and workshop presenter at conferences, trade shows, and private companies, including The U.S. Department of Defense, The Public Relations Society of America, Advertising Week, and the Direct Marketing Association, among many others.

Included in the days activities will be a guided tour of one of the most modern automotive assembly plants in North America. You don't want to miss it! Registrations will be limited to the first 100 people. Registration deadline is September 24, 2010. The cost for the workshop is $100 for PRCA members and $125 for non-members. Visit the workshop link on the PRCA website

In A Word: April 3-5, 2011

How would you describe a PRCA conference?

In a word...PRCA conferences are educational. Informative. Entertaining. And in 2011, it's all about the words.

The 2011 conference theme, In A Word, is a nod to the various forms of writing we all encounter in our practice of public relations. Writing for news media. Writing for the Web. Speechwriting. Visual communications. Telling your story. Telling your company's story. It's all about the words.

Mark your calendars now to join us in Birmingham on April 3-5, 2011 at the brand new Embassy Suites Birmingham-Hoover. Stay tuned to PRCAonline.com in coming months for speaker announcements and other conference news.

Call for Nominees Public Relations Senior Practitioner of the Year

Each year, SPRF member organizations (ECPRO, PRAL, PRAM, and PRCA) and their respective chapters are invited to nominate up to two professionals per chapter for the SPRF Senior Practitioner designation.

The senior practitioner designation was established to honor members of SPRF who are recognized by their peers as veteran public relations professionals with high ethical standing. Recipients of this designation are announced at the SPRF annual conference.

Guidelines for Nomination

1. Selection is made by each local chapter based on criteria set by the Southern Public Relations Federation. To receive the designation "Senior Practitioner," a recipient must meet at least three of the following four criteria:
 - 15 years of full-time public relations experience
 - Accreditation by a Universal Accreditation Board member organization for public relations practitioners
 - Officer or board member at chapter, state or regional level within SPRF member organizations
 - Recognition of professionalism as evidenced by Practitioner of the Year, Lantern Award or similar honors and awards
2. Nominees may only be designated as a Senior Practitioner one time in their careers. To view a list of past designees, log on to: <http://sprf.org/awards/senior-practitioners/>

If you or someone you know is an ideal candidate for this recognition, please submit the name, along with the nomination form to Carol Gunter. Her email is cgunter@montgomeryal.gov.

Rally in The Alley School Supplies

PRCAs are partnering with EMERGE Montgomery to help collect school supplies for the Montgomery Public School System. Both organizations believe this is a "MUST DO" project to help our local school system.

Morgan Berney is forming a committee to kick off the School Supply campaign during the second Annual Rally in the Alley for the United Way on Thursday, August 12, 2010. If you are interested in helping with this worthwhile project, please email her at mberney@montgomerychamber.com.

The campaign will need plenty of volunteers to be a rousing success for the teachers and school children in the Montgomery County Public School system. Morgan and EMERGE representatives will be contacting local businesses, that sell school supplies, to gain permission to hand out fliers in front of their store.

There is plenty of prep work to be done and your participation is critical, because our schools REALLY need this. It will be well worth the time and effort. If you would be willing to help please contact Morgan.

PRCA Montgomery is a monthly publication for PRCA's Montgomery Chapter members. For the most up-to-date information, visit www.prcamontgomery.org. Please send all job announcements, news items, updates and comments to Robert Burns at rburns@hmmausa.com and indicate "PRCA" in the subject line.
