

ASHLEY MANN

Ashley Mann, Birmingham native, currently serves as the Executive Director of The Morgan Project.

The Morgan Project was founded on June 1, 2020, to provide active and meaningful programs that work to teach and celebrate Black history. Its mission is to teach civil rights and social justice through Birmingham's history of conflict and courage.

With over a decade of experience in working in philanthropy, Ashley obtained her Bachelor's Degree in Journalism from Mercer University (Macon, GA) and Juris Doctorate from New England Law (Boston, MA). Upon graduating law school, she worked with a private family foundation in Boston, MA. While serving in this role, she developed curriculums and implemented strategic objectives to promote the growth of early childhood education and participated in funder collaboratives that increased enrollment in public, charter, and parochial schools.

In addition to her work with The Morgan Project, Ashley is a practicing Business and Real Estate Attorney in the District of Columbia.

